MEMO ENDORSED

Your brief is limited to 15 pages,
so I assume the exhibits to be brief.
If the exhibits are a lot more, my advice is to submit a separate letter explaining. 20 exhibits is DENIED all exhibits to be submitted are 775 pages

Re: Akinyemi v. Chertoff, 07 CV 4048 (AJP)

Dear Judge Peck:

I am the attorney for the plaintiff in the above-referenced action. I write this letter to respectfully seek your leave to file the plaintiff's opposition papers to the pending motion for summary judgment, which are due on February 29, 2008, in hard copy instead of by ECF.

The reason I am making this request is because of the volume of the exhibits which I anticipate to file with the opposition papers. I estimate that the exhibits which will accompany the opposition papers will well exceed 800 pages. This makes it very hard to do as an ECF filing. I note here that my review of your Individual Practices do not appear to provide guidance as to how counsel may proceed with this kind of request. However, as the party who bears the ultimate burden in the case, I have made such requests which have been granted in ECF cases. My most recent such request, two months ago, was granted by Judge Joanna Seybert of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

Respectfully submitted,
